eAnnadata Welfare & Development India limited

“Kisan hai Annadata, Sabka Bhagya Vidhata”

eAnnadata welfare and development India limited is a resolution in the supports of the farmers of the country for their overall welfare & development from the National Farmers Day (23 December 2020). Honorable Prime Minister has also said that “In the golden period of independence, eAnnadata will have a strong participation and take the country to new heights of development.” I am confident that in the year 2047, when the country celebrates its centenary of independence, an inclusive and developed India will be our new identity.
